REMARKS: Mr Mamabolo is an extremely intelligent who at times seemed to lose interest in some of the subjects being taught. This could be due to the fact that this course is taught on a relatively low NQF level. Nevertheless he maintained a good standard of work and was always respectable towards other. He was a disciplined individual that always correct out whatever instruction that was given to him. He has strong leadership capabilities that will only blossom if he is placed in a reserve which tests his capabilities. I would definitely recommend this individual for employment.
